NOTES AND ORDERS.

General and Revenue Secretariat. Muz. File No. 347 of 192 7

Serial No.

This question could not be settled so far, as the exact amount available for disposal was not known. The Muzrai Commissioner's proposals regarding the continuance or otherwise of the several classes of Nemmi allowances have now been received and dealt with, and according to them, the amount of savings which is available for immediate use is only a sum of Rs 30,567-10-0. According to the recommendations of the Anna-Chattrams Committee, accepted by Government, half of this amount is intended for encouraging Ayurvedic and Unani systems of medicine; the other half is intended for giving grants-in-aid to (i) institutions for the relief of the deaf and dumb, and the blind, (ii) to homes for the relief of the destitute and infirm, and (iii) to orphanages.

(Muz. file 290-27 "J")

2. The question of financial assistance to orphanages has been settled in G.O. No. 2026-8/Muz 118 dt. 26-27 dated 8th May 28 and these institutions will, according to this order, receive grants-in-aid from the Education Department.

3. We have a Deaf and Dumb School in Kyasambally Mysore which has now become a Government institution. There is another similar school in Bangalore maintained by the Municipality.

Reg. No. 7175

Two schools of this kind for the whole State appear to be sufficient and it is not therefore necessary to afford financial assistance for starting such institutions in other districts.

4. The sum available out of the savings for assisting institutions coming under class (ii) - Homes for the relief of the destitute and infirm - is about Rs 15,000 per annum and the average amount which can be given for each district will be about Rs 2,000. Assistance from this source may be given on compliance with the following conditions:-

(i) Grant to be limited to one-third of total expenditure on the institution;

(ii) The balance of two-thirds to be found from contributions by Local Bodies and the public;

& (iii) Committees for the management of institutions to be appointed with the approval of Government.

Conditions of grant of financial assistance may be notified and applications for aid entertained and dealt with as vacancies.

Government Proceedings No. 875-90—Muz. 89-23-10, dated 13th November 1926, passing orders re abolition of Annachattrams in the State and utilisation of the savings for certain specified purposes.

2. Government Order No. D. 1451-5—Edn. 35-26-11, dated 4th August 1927, prescribing rules for regulating grants-in-aid to Orphanages, Anathalayas and Asylums for destitute children.

ORDER No. 2159-60—MUZ. 347-27-2, DATED 26TH MAY 1928.

The question of utilisation of savings secured by the abolition of the Annachattrams could not be settled till now, as the exact amount available for disposal was not known. The Muzrai Commissioner's proposals regarding the continuance or otherwise of the several classes of Nehimi allowances have now been received and dealt with. According to them the amount of savings available for use is a sum of Rs. 30,567-10-0. According to the recommendations of the Annachattrams Committee accepted by Government, half of this amount is intended for encouraging Ayurvedic and Unani Systems of Medicine and the balance for giving grants-in-aid to three classes of institutions, namely Schools for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, (ii) Homes for the relief of the Destitute and Infirm, and (iii) Orphanages.

2. The question of financial assistance to Orphanages has been settled in the second of the orders read above and these institutions will, according to this order, receive grants-in-aid from the Education Department.

3. There is a school for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind at Mysore which is a Government Institution. There is another similar school at Bangalore maintained by the Municipality. Two schools of this kind appear to be sufficient and it is not therefore necessary to afford financial assistance from the savings of Annachattrams for starting more institutions of this nature.

4. The sum available out of the savings for assisting institutions coming under class (ii) namely—Homes for the relief of the Destitute and Infirm is about Rs. 15,000 per annum and the average amount which can be allowed for each District will be about Rs. 2,000. Assistance from this source will be given subject to the following conditions:—

(i) That the grant will be limited to one-third of total expenditure on the institution,

(ii) that the balance of two-thirds should be found from contributions by local bodies and the public, and

(iii) that Committees for the management of Institutions should be appointed with the approval of Government.

5. Applications for aid according to this order will be received and considered on their merits.
